Hearts and Flowers Theme

Girl Scouts Honored At 'Valentine' Tea

Approximately 100 girls and 60 mothers were guests of honor at the Valentine Tea at the Torrance Woman's Club Friday afternoon, when the Junior Woman's Club entertained the Girl Scouts of Troops 1591, 28, 1490, and 2184, all sponsored by the Junior Club.

An effective "hearts and flowers" theme was used in decorating and each guest was presented with a red satin heart sachet, on which the Juniors had spent 112 hours in making.

Punch, tea and cookies were served from the beautifully decorated Valentine tea table.

The sponsored groups recently assisted the Juniors in stuffing March of Dimes envelopes.

Assisting in this first for the Junior Club were Mmes. Richard Rankin, Frank Ashford, John Howland, Donald French, David Rozas, D. G. McKenzie, Richard Browne and Carl Messmer.

Torrance Juniors are affiliated with the California Federation of Women's clubs, Marina District 18, junior membership.

City of Hope Benefit Fashion Show March 11

"That Wonderful Look" will keynote the Torrance Chapter City of Hope Benefit Fashion Show to be held Wednesday, March 11, 8:30 p.m. in the Crystal Room of the Palms restaurant in Torrance.

Designs from collections of Tabak of California and Catalina sportswear and swim suits will be shown.

Ella Schwartz, fashion director for the Levy Dept. store in Torrance, will supervise the fashion production, ably assisted by Sylvia Miller as commentator.

Honored guest for the affair will be Louis Tabak, well known couturier and past president of the City of Hope.

Chapter President Mrs. Bert Lynn is in charge of arrangements. Mmes. John Arensmyer, Jerome Scharfman, E. O. Erickson and Walter West will serve as the decorating committee.

Further information may be had by calling Mrs. John Arensmyer.

At Plush Horse April 8

Montgomery Mothers Plan Auction Event

Mothers Club of Bishop Montgomery High School is again making plans for a huge auction and luncheon to be held this year on April 8 at the Plush Horse restaurant.

Mrs. Francis Chamberlin of Manhattan Beach is general chairman of this gala affair and Mrs. Anthony Villano of Torrance is co-chairman.

Cocktails will be enjoyed from 11:30 until 12:30 at which time a salad luncheon will be served. Starting at 1:30 p.m., a silent auction will be held followed by a verbal auction.

Mrs. Harry Redgriff of Gardena will be the Verbal Auction chairman assisted by Mrs. John Porizek of Lawndale.

Mrs. Ralph Arthur of Inglewood is in charge of decorations.

Mrs. Harry Sweet has volunteered to provide storage space for auction articles until the big event.

Anyone having articles to donate for the auction is asked to call Mrs. Ronald Creasy of Torrance.

For ticket reservations, Mrs. James Wood of Redondo Beach or Mrs. Harold Scott of Torrance may be called. The public is invited to attend the event.

Pre-Nuptial Parties For Laura Gregg, Bride-elect

Miss Laura Gregg, bride-elect of Lee A. McCoy, Jr., was complimented at two pre-nuptial showers last week.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. C. W. McLean entertained at a personal shower for the future bride at her home, 2712 Torrance Blvd.

The Valentine theme, used in decorating, was emphasized with an arrangement of red carnations and white stock on the table, which also held a Valentine cake decorated with lace hearts on which the names "Laura and Lee" were inscribed.

Guest list for this party included Mmes. W. C. Boswell, Jack Bynum, Robert Clayton, W. O. Clausen, A.F.R. Ewall, Jack Gregg, Mildred Heinbecker, Elliott Gosch.

Also Mmes. Don Hyde, Maxine Jensen, Bonnie McCoy, John Melville, H. L. Mitchell, J. P. Montague, Rodney Norris, W. R. Patterson, Gus Sudmeier, R. J. Triplitt and John Wolfe.

The wedding colors, blue and lilac, were effectively used by Mrs. Donald Minor and her daughter, Judy, when they entertained at a kitchen shower for Miss Gregg last Sunday afternoon at their home, 2822 Onrado. Blue and lilac umbrellas made up the party decor and the shower cake was topped with miniature umbrellas in blue and lilac colors.

Arriving with gifts for the bride-to-be were Mmes. Glenn Sudmeier, Steve Noble, Robert Hansen, Tom Hammack and Jack Gregg.

Others were Misses Donna Thistle, Roxanne Barnard, Loretta Kennedy, Susan Mathis, Susan Gregg, Ann Cassetta, Charlene Alarcon, Pat Piercy, Sharon Radi, and Georgeann Baker.

Unable to attend, but sending gifts, were Mrs. Bonnie McCoy; Misses Sharon Mascola and Georgiann McLean. The Gregg-McCoy wedding will take place March 1 at 4 p.m. at the First Christian Church in Torrance.

Fifteen members of the local auxiliary were on hand for the program. They were Mmes. George Blahnik, John Blain, John Ferraiolo, Denny Haas, Ruben Garnica, Milton Langum, Edward Kennedy, Robert Moffitt, Mack Oetting, Gilbert Pike, Ronald Power, Charles Richardson, Bill Stonecker, James Wass and Walter West.

Mrs. Stonecker was one of the four finalists. She was presented with a corsage and many gifts.

READY TO SERVE . . . Nativity Mothers Club will serve a pancake breakfast Sunday, Feb. 23, beginning at 8 a.m. at the Nativity Annex. Mr. and Mrs. Norris Carstenson are serving as chairmen of the breakfast, proceeds from which will be used to purchase athletic equipment for Nativity School. Preparing for the event are from left, Claudia Carstenson, 13, Francesca Sequeira, 13, and Mrs. Carstenson. (Herald Photo)

Myer Twins Birthdays Celebrated

The twelfth birthdays of Caryle and Sherri Myer, twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Myer, were the incentive for a whirl of activity at the Ridgeland Drive home of the Myers over the past weekend.

On Thursday evening the two celebrants were honored at a family dinner which was attended by their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll McLaughlin of San Pedro.

On Friday evening, a slumber party was held. Caryle and Sherrie and their guests played games, after which refreshments were served. On Saturday morning breakfast was served to conclude activities.

Helping celebrate were Susan Mowry, Kathy Powers, Nikki Santalla, Louise Mendoza, Cathy Baumgardner, Freddie and Tracey Orr.

... Megow

The Rev. William Roleder, pastor, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

A reception was held in the church hall. Miss Joyce Wayt was in charge of the bride's book.

A honeymoon was spent at Palm Springs, San Juan Capistrano and Marineland. The couple is now at home at 613B Sartori Ave.

The bride attended Torrance schools and was graduated from El Camino College. She is a Past Honored Queen of the Torrance Bethel, Job's Daughters.

Mr. Megow will be graduated from Long Beach State College in June 1964. At State, he is secretary of the Alpha Kappa Psi fraternity.

Both are employees of the City of Torrance Recreation Dept.

Singers Needed For 'Norway'

Singing auditions for "The Song of Norway" will be held Sunday, Feb. 23, at 1 p.m. Particularly needed is a large number of good voices, since the chorus is sizable and the principal roles are quite demanding. They include two leading men, one a lyric tenor, the other a lyric baritone; two sopranos, one a lyric-dramatic, the other a lyric; an alto character woman; a bass or baritone character man; a Sig Arno type singing comedian, and a juvenile singer-dancer.

All non-Equity performers are cordially invited to these open auditions. Opening date for "Song of Norway" will be April 16 at the Long Beach Municipal Auditorium.

Church Units View Films

Wesleyan Service Guild entertained the Women's Society of Christian Service at a joint meeting at the First Methodist Church on Jan. 29.

Mrs. Irene Steele, president, and Mrs. Molly Marshall, program chairman, were in charge of the evening.

Mrs. Marshall introduced Mrs. Robert Young, wife of a former pastor of the church, who just returned from a trip around the world. Mrs. Young showed colored slides made on the trip and gave an interesting account of the places visited and the people she met.

Following the program, refreshments were served from a decorated table, by Mmes. Betty Harrison, Clina Holland, Irene Steele and Lois Sluga.

Rebekahs to Meet Feb. 26

Torrance Rebekah lodge will meet Wednesday Feb. 26 at the Torrance Masonic Temple, 2326 Cabrillo Ave. at 8 p.m. with Mrs. Verna Bartleson, noble grand, in charge. Chairman for the evening is Juanita McNew.

Lodge members are planning a Hobo Party at the Temple on March 25.

Several members are planning to attend the district initiation at Compton on March 13. Practice will be held at Compton on the afternoon of March 8, with two members from each lodge of the district making up the degree team.

DOUBLE CELEBRATION . . . High school sweethearts, who were married in a double wedding at the Lakewood Village Church, on Feb. 19, 1939, celebrated their silver wedding anniversaries at a family dinner party. They are from left, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Pike and Mr. and Mrs. William Marshall. The Pikes have one daughter, Judy, and the Marshalls have three sons, Bill, Mike and Tim. Mr. Pike has a termite control business in Torrance and Mr. Marshall is with the Long Beach Police Dept. (Portrait by Seaman)
